CHRISTMAS TRADITON AND LANGUAGE COURSE IN MILAN	Duration	Course No.	Number of lessons	Participants min.	Euro*
	1 week	691	20 + visits + dinner	2	250

Short description

The Christmas season lasts for three weeks: it starts 8 days before Christmas and ends on the Epiphany Celebration (January 6th). This time of the year is called "La Novena".

Christmas is the most important holiday in Italy, and its celebration is a great tradition all over the country.

To get in touch with the spirit of the Italian way of celebrating Christmas and to share Italian traditions with other students, the Italian language schools Leonardo da Vinci in Milan and Rome have developed a "Special Christmas Course" for those who would like to discover the typical Italian Christmas.
