

The wine roads of Todi

A Trip Discovering the Grechetto and Sagrantino Vineyards in Umbria

Learn Italian while exploring the world of wine

Programs are for 1 week or longer

In Todi, a gorgeous medieval town that sits atop the hills of Umbria, students can enjoy Italian lifestyle through food, people, art and nature.

La Lingua La Vita, a language school in Todi founded in 1988, offers Italian lessons as well as courses in wine and wine tasting with a certified sommelier. The school also has other various cultural activities in the afternoon including: guided tours to local wineries, trips to well-known cities such as Assisi, Orvieto and Spoleto, and many other beautiful 'off the beaten path' locations.

CULTURAL PROGRAM

Sunday

WELCOME TO TODI

Meet with your host family or apartment owner and make yourself at home in your accommodation.

Monday (3:30pm)

Guided tour around the Historical Center of Todi followed by an aperitif

An opportunity to chat in Italian over a glass of prosecco outside class in a relaxing atmosphere at a local caffè, bar or restaurant.

Tuesday (3:30pm)

Wine Tasting:

A delicious tasting of Umbrian wine accompanied by a selection of bread and cheeses at Cantina Roccafiore, a beautiful winery, resort and spa near Todi (www.roccafiore.it).

Wednesday (3:00pm)

An afternoon field trip to TORGIANO and a visit to the Museo del Vino in Torgiano. A town just 10km south of Perugia that is believed to be founded by the Etruscans, and is situated on a hill overlooking the confluence of the Chiascio and Tiber Rivers (<http://www.lungarotti.it/fondazione/en/MOO/index.php>)

Thursday – (3:00pm)

An afternoon excursion to Montefalco - a beautiful hamlet, best known for its "città del Sagrantino" (city of Sagrantino) because it offers some of the highest quality Sagrantino wines produced in Italy. Visit to a traditional winery in the gorgeous medieval town of Bevagna not far from Todi.

Friday- (3:00pm)

Wine Tasting and Cooking Lessons – An expert sommelier will teach the students the secrets of wine tasting and later in the day an Italian family will host a cooking course while preparing a traditional Italian dinner together.

Saturday SPECIAL EVENT (Depending on the season)

Autumn: Pick grapes at an Umbrian vineyard.

Winter: Winter events connected to wine.

Spring: "Cantine Aperte: open days for wineries

Summer: Festivals and other events

Sunday

Farewell and see you on your next trip to Todi!!

Price Per Person (min 4 students)

- 1 week group course + accommodation with half board family + 5 cultural activities + teaching material + registration fee (folder with pen, book, a welcome card, entry test and final certification):

1.140,00 + 60,00 Euros

- 1 week group course + accommodation in independent apartment + 5 cultural activities + teaching material + registration fee (folder with pen, book, a welcome card, entry test and final certification):

1.090,00 + 60,00 Euros