

MILAN

VOCAL COACHING COURSES

SHORT DESCRIPTION AND NOTES

Experience exceptional vocal coaching with a professional opera singer and vocalist, Demetra Fogazza.

Demetra Fogazza, a singing teacher (classical and modern) and vocal coach, is a singer, multi-instrumentalist, choir director and arranger.

She holds degrees in Classical Singing and Music Education from Milan. Certified in Estill Voice Training and First Aid Vocal, she has sung in Europe, the US, and Asia.

For 20 years, she has taught vocal pedagogy and has researched motor learning in singing and voice management. Currently, she coordinates the Singing and Production course at Mohole School in Milan. She teaches in Italian, English, and Spanish.

- The lessons are held in the dedicated studio of Demetra Fogazza in Milan.
- Whether students are beginners or advanced vocalists, they have the opportunity to refine their technique, enhance their range, and develop their unique sound under expert guidance.
- Personalized lessons suit all levels ensuring a supportive and enriching environment for musical growth.
- Knowledge of Italian not required.

